

THE IRISH GOLF SHOW

Get expert advice and evaluation on your swing at the Irish Golf Show

PAUL McLoughlin, one of Ireland's most respected PGA golf instructors and a key world-wide golf coach, is working with this year's Irish Golf Show. Paul, and his team from the Clontarf Golf Club, Portmarnock Golf Range and Glencullen Golf Club, will be on hand to offer FREE 15 minute, one-on one evaluations and instruction using the groundbreaking Explanar Professional System, V1 Pro Swing Analysis Software and traditional one-on-one tuition. You will get the latest professional assessment, analysis and advice to improve your game.

In addition to enjoying the PGA recognised advice of the Paul McLoughlin Golf Schools, visitors to the Irish Golf Show will also be able to buy Paul's renowned tuition DVD, Effortless by capturing your actual swing on digital video.

Once captured, the Swing Zone experts of top PGA Pros, will review your results using state-of-the-art motion analysis software and then send an electronic mediabook to you, allowing continual re-play as an annotated clip of your shot. Included with your analysis are views of your key positions with the Pro's comments and print-out stills from the video for your reference. You can then take this to your driving range, golf club or academy for continual reference on your mobile phone, PDA or laptop whilst practicing.

If you visit the Swing Zone website they also offer a series of articles and tips on how Paul McLoughlin, and his team from the Clontarf Golf Club, Portmarnock Golf Range and Glencullen Golf Club, will be on hand to offer FREE 15 minute, one-on one evaluations and instruction.

Golf, at only €25 which normally retails at €40. This unique DVD is designed to cater for all golfing levels (0-40 Handicaps) with easy to follow steps on the issues that prevent you from being the golfer you know you could be. This will be a very popular feature so please reserve your session early upon arrival at show registration.

Swing Zone

The Swing Zone is a revolutionary new service that offers all visitors to The Irish Golf Show the opportunity to analyse your golf to build your perfect swing by renowned European Tour coach Simon Holmes. This comprehensive guide is a perfect complement to your personal swing analysis and together they form a unique method of providing tailor-made golf instruction on the web. This will be a very popular feature so please reserve your session early upon arrival at show registration.

For all this and more, don't miss The Irish Golf Show on Saturday 24 & Sunday 25 May at Citywest Hotel & Golf Resort. See www.pinnaclegolfing.com for more details.

GAZETTE READER 2 FOR 1 TICKET OFFER

Entry to THE IRISH GOLF SHOW is normally €10, payable on the door. Readers of The Gazette can however cut out this advert, bring it to the show and 2 people will get entry for the price of one!* Also, children under the age of 16 get in for FREE.

PLUS

Citywest have also agreed that every visitor will be able to redeem their entry wristband for up to €20 off a round of golf after the Show.

